

Sommelier Selection

WHITE

242. J. De Villeboise Pouilly Fume 2022 €75

The wine presents a pale colour with yellow highlights. The refined and expressive nose reveals aromas of green citrus and blackcurrant bud, enhanced by notes of sansho pepper and exotic spices. On the palate, minerality shines through with vibrant green citrus and mandarin freshness, supported by subtle grapefruit zest bitterness. Balance and elegance take center stage, leading to a long finish with a pleasant saline touch.

234. Domaine Nathalie & Gilles Fevre, Chablis 1er Cru 2023 €150

Nathalie and Gilles Fèvre grow their Chardonnay vines from parcels situated beside the village of Fontenay-près-Chablis, at the very heart of the Chablis vineyards. On high plains or steep hills, all the Domaine's Chablis grows on stony Kimmeridgien limestone soils. Most of their vineyards are between 15 and 20 years old, though the vines which produce grapes for the 1er Cru Fourchaume were planted between 1942 and 1989.

"Aromas of white pears and fresh peaches here, mingling with citrus pith and grapefruit. It's clean, medium-bodied and precise, with a focused finish. Drink now."

RED

516. Pico Maccario Nizza DOCG Tre Roveri 2020 €80

Pico Maccario is a Barbera specialist located in the town of Mombaruzzo in the heart of Piedmont's Barbera d'Asti DOCG. Brothers Pico and Vitaliano created the Pico Maccario brand in 1997 following four generations of selling the family grapes to other producers.

Aromas of ripe black-skinned berry, forest floor and underbrush form the earthy, alluring nose. The savoury, approachable palate offers ripe black plum, tobacco and black pepper alongside polished tannins.

435. Château Leoville Barton, La Réserve 2018 €200

The wine is structured, well-balanced and greedy with a spicy touch and beautiful black fruits. Sensations of power and density. Beautiful length. The story of Leoville Barton began in 1722 when Thomas Barton left Ireland to settle in Bordeaux and founded a wine merchant company. In 1826, His grandson purchased 50 hectares of vines located in St Julien. This second wine of Chateau Léoville Barton comes from young vines and plots that have not reached the high level of requirement to enter in the Grand Vin.
