270. AU BON CLIMAT, Chardonnay – Wild Boy 2021 €75.00

Jim Clendenen founded Au Bon Climat in 1982 as a way of respecting the cool Pacific climate, the marine soils and the east-west running hills and mountain ranges that gave the vineyards "a good place" or, a "Bon Climat". The choice of the French phrase came because of the obsession with Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, which Jim had identified as being perfect tools to show the quality of the land. And of course, forty years later, the proof is in the amazing puddings.

275. GROSSET, 'Polish Hill' Clare Valley Riesling 2022 €180.00

For almost four decades, the Grosset 'Springvale' and 'Polish Hill' Rieslings have shown a consistency of style and quality that has earned Jeffrey his unrivalled reputation. The 'hard rock' blue slate of the Polish Hill site results in wines that are steely and magnificently age-worthy, while the red loam of the Springvale vineyard gives more open and easily accessible, though no less complex, wines.

RED

521 CASTAGNOLI Terrazze, Chianti Classico Riserva 2017 €100.00

100% Sangiovese. The very best parcels of Castagnoli are matured in oak for 24 months. The name of our Riserva derives from the ancient Tuscan stone terraces that shape the visual of the vineyards and winery.

Castagnoli is a small wine estate near the village of Castellina in Chianti. The estate was first mentioned in 998AD, when Ugo "The Great" Marquis of Tuscany, gifted it to the abbey of San Michele di Marturi

486. TÈLÈGRAMME, Vignobles Brunier 2021 €220.00

In producing this cuvée, the domain uses its young (that is, under 30 years old) Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre and Cinsault vines. These grapes are harvested by hand and are double-sorted during picking, then again upon arrival at the winery. They are all destemmed, and a 25-30-day traditional fermentation is carried out in vats. The grapes are then pneumatically pressed prior to malolactic fermentation. The wine is then matured in vats for the first 10 months, then 7 months in 30hl French oak barrels.

Sommelier, Zoran Pravdic
