Job Description: Baker

Position: Baker

Department: Kitchen

Reports to: Head Baker / Sous Chef

Overview:

The Baker is responsible for preparing a variety of high-quality baked goods, including breads, pastries, and desserts, ensuring they meet The Killarney Park Hotel's exceptional standards. This role requires skill, creativity, and attention to detail to produce delicious, visually appealing, and consistently high-quality baked items. The Baker will work closely with the kitchen team to ensure efficient daily operations and contribute to the overall success of the bakery section.

Key Responsibilities:

- Prepare and bake a selection of breads, pastries, cakes, and other baked goods for all hotel outlets.
- Ensure consistency and high-quality standards in all baked items, maintaining the hotel's reputation for excellence.
- Monitor baking processes, ensuring proper techniques, temperatures, and timings for optimal results.
- Assist in developing and testing new recipes, incorporating seasonal ingredients and guest preferences.
- Maintain a clean, organized, and hygienic work environment, adhering to all health and safety regulations.
- Monitor stock levels for baking ingredients, coordinating with the kitchen team to ensure adequate supplies and minimal waste.
- Train and assist junior bakers and kitchen assistants, ensuring they follow recipes, techniques, and hygiene standards.
- Manage mise en place for the bakery section, ensuring ingredients are prepared and available for service.
- Ensure proper storage and handling of all baking ingredients to maintain freshness and quality.
- Collaborate with other kitchen sections to ensure consistency across the entire food menu.
- Assist with inventory management and ordering of baking supplies as required.
- Support the Head Baker and Sous Chef in maintaining smooth bakery operations and meeting service demands.

Working Hours:

As per the schedule provided, including early mornings, weekends, and public holidays as required.

Working Conditions:

This role involves working in a fast-paced kitchen environment with extended periods of standing and working with hot ovens and baking equipment. The Killarney Park Hotel offers a supportive work environment, competitive compensation, and the opportunity to work with a talented and creative bakery team.
